

PRIMOHUMAN Foundation in partnership with Europrojekt Consulting and Training Center Joanna JuszczyÅ?ska, Dorota Juszko general partnership.

The aim of the project is active social inclusion and increasing the employability of 100 people (55 Women/45 Men) in a disadvantaged situation, i.e. people at risk of poverty and social exclusion, as well as professionally inactive (due to long-term illness, disability or care for people dependents) residing in Lower Silesia, through the use of active integration services of a social, professional, educational and health nature.

Project implementation deadline: from August 1, 2024. until October 31, 2026

Main tasks of the project

- Task 1 Active social integration services, i.e. psychological and legal counseling,
- Task 2 Active social integration services, i.e. training of social skills and competences,
- Task 3 Active integration services of a professional nature, i.e. career counseling,
- Task 4 Active professional integration services, i.e.: vocational courses and training,
- Task 5 Active integration services of a professional nature, i.e. internships,
- Task 6 Active health integration services.

Contact regarding participation in the project

Project office addresses:
street Kamienna 16a, 59-300 Lubin,
street 1-go Maja 1a, 55-200 OÅ?awa;
street B. Kosiby 22/2, 59-700 BolesÅ?awiec.
Telephone numbers for the project offices: 792174088, 605202076, 605202026

The project is implemented under Priority No. 7 "European Funds for the labor market and social inclusion in Lower Silesia" Measure No. 7.5 "Active integration" of the European Funds for Lower Silesia 2021-2027 Program co-financed by the European Social Fund Plus.

More information about the project on the PRIMOHUMAN Foundation website.

- Print
- PDF
- Share
- e-urzÄ d

all news